Elysburg United Methodist Church
Elysburg, Pa. 17824

1855 — 1983

Between 1791 and 1855 the Elysburg Methodist Congregation was organized through the efforts of Bishop Asbury and others in this area. The first church building, a one-story structure, stood where the Village Apartments are located on West Center Street. This facility was used until the present site was available.

The cornerstone for the present building was laid on September 20, 1885. The Rev. H. B. Fortner was pastor. The original building has been remodeled and additions made during the pastorates of Reverends Ripple, Lawson, Bender, Hickok and Wynn

In 1983 the Church voted to expand the social hall and brick the church. The Consecration Service was held on November 13, 1983 The Rev. Kenneth E. Gelzhiser is the pastor.
